

Kate Woodhead RGN DMS

Kate runs a Healthcare Consultancy and has extensive experience in perioperative services having worked in the UK national health Service prior to running her own company.

She was President of the International Federation of Perioperative Nurses (2002-2006), and 1998-2001 served as National Association of Theatre Nurses, Chairman.

Kate was lead editor of the Text Book of Perioperative Care (2005) and the Manual of Perioperative Care: an essential guide, published in 2012. She was an Advisor to the WHO for Safe Surgery Saves Lives. She is Chair of Friends of African Nursing and travels frequently to deliver education to nurses in Africa.